Title: Interesting Device

Author: Wallace the Prophet

Brave Adventurer I am in need of your services. I have recently heard that the orcs in the various orc forts are using a strange device called a bola.

It is said that this weapon can unhorse a warrior in but an instant I wish to study one of these devices. I need you to gather for me 12 bola balls which I am told make up this new weapon and bring them to me for study. I will reward your valor with a token of my appreciation. The quest will last 1 week and at 8 pm eastern time we will give prizes to the winners and you will receive your justly earned reward.
